H of F booklet lists Saint-Gaudens return to U.S. in 1873, yet a biography by his son (Reminiscences of A. S.G.) states he returned in 1875. According to this same source, it vaguely mentions a brief trip to N.Y. in either 1872 or 1873 (but does not state which). According to this book, he then returned to Europe where he met the woman who was to be his wife - and stayed in Rome until he returned to the U.S. in 1875. Since both these trips are vital story points, could you advise us? Manual goes to press in two weeks, so date mentioned in copy (1875) must be corroborated soonest.
